

other licenses in his assigned territory, and the laws relating to the collection of the oyster tax, and shall pay<sup>1</sup> on such other duties as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Fisheries.

1939, ch. 353, sec. 12A.

12A. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Commission, may appoint not more than fifty deputy inspectors, each of whom shall receive such salary not to exceed $1,200 per annum, as may be fixed in the budget. The Commissioner shall have the right to employ such deputy inspectors by the month or by the year. The deputy inspectors shall have and exercise the powers and duties herein conferred upon the county inspectors and when so directed by the Commissioner shall act under the control, supervision and direction of the county inspectors. Both the county inspectors and deputy inspectors shall have and exercise the rights, powers and duties of the former deputy commanders, general inspectors, special inspectors, inspectors, general measurers, measurers and members of the State Fishery Force, subject in all cases to the orders of the Commissioner of Fisheries.

1939, ch. 353, sec. 12B.

12B. The Commissioner shall appoint as county or deputy inspectors such male persons as can read and write, and are sufficiently intelligent to pass an examination in the making out of reports, and upon other phases of their duties, as determined by the Commission. No person shall be appointed as a county inspector or deputy inspector until he shall have passed a physical examination to be given by a physician selected by the Commission.

1939, ch. 353, sec. 12C.

12C. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to promote the advertising of the seafood products of this State and to prepare such advertising or other matter as it may deem advantageous to the welfare and improvement of the seafood industry, and shall cooperate with the seafood industry in any lawful manner it may deem proper for the benefit of the fisheries.

1939, ch. 353, sec. 12D.

12D. All sums of money provided to be paid to the Conservation Department under the provisions of Section 16 of Article 39 of the Annotated Code, as enacted by Chapter 471 of the Acts of 1929, shall hereafter be paid over to the Commission of Fisheries and be annually expended by it in the propagation of tidewater fish.
